The St. Mary's Girls of 1911-'12

College and Upper Preparatory

Departments

This is intended to be a student directory, giving the full name, correct address for correspondence, and student activities of each girl. Apology is offered for any errors.

After each name is given the academic classification, indicated in the College by the Class Numeral. Prep. indicates a member of the Preparatory Department; Bus., a member of the Business Department; Mus., Music Department, etc.

The figure which follows the class indication gives the number of years the student has been at St. Mary's.

The line or lines below the name and address are meant to give a summary of the membership in student organizations and the student offices held during the year. For the most part only the first name is used in designating the organization. Thus, Dramatic means Dramatic Club, Altar means Altar Guild, St. Margaret's means St. Margaret's Chapter, Σ Λ and E Λ II designate the Literary Societies, etc., etc. GD indicates Granddaughters of St. Mary's.

The names of nonresident students are indicated by asterisks (*) prefixed.

The St. Mary's Girls of 1912-'13

College and Upper Preparatory Departments

This is intended to be a student directory, giving the full name, correct address for correspondence, and student activities of each girl. Apology is offered for any errors.

After each name is given the academic classification, indicated in the College by the Class Numeral. Prep. indicates a member of the Preparatory Department; Bus., a member of the Business Department; Mus., Music Department, etc.

The figure which follows the class indication gives the number of years the student has been at St. Mary's.

The line or lines below the name and address are meant to give a summary of the membership in student organizations and the student offices held during the year. For the most part only the first name is used in designating the organization. Thus, Dramatic means Dramatic Club, Altar means Altar Guild, St. Margaret's means St. Margaret's Chapter, Σ Λ, Α Ρ, and Ε Α ΙΙ designate the Literary Societies, etc., etc. GD indicates Granddaughters of St. Mary's.

The names of nonresident students are indicated by asterisks (*) prefixed.

Students whose names are marked with a dagger were in attendance only a part of the session.

The St. Mary's Girls of 1913-'14

College and Upper Preparatory Departments

This is intended to be a student directory, giving the full name, correct address for correspondence, and student activities of each girl. Apology is offered for any errors.

After each name is given the academic classification, indicated in the College by the Class Numeral. Prep. indicates a member of the Preparatory Department; Bus., a member of the Business Department; Mus., Music Department, etc.

The figure which follows the class indication gives the number of years the student has been at St. Mary's.

The line or lines below the name and address are meant to give a summary of the membership in student organizations and the student offices held during the year. For the most part only the first name is used in designating the organization. Thus, Dramatic means Dramatic Club, Altar means Altar Guild, St. Margaret's means St. Margaret's Chapter, Σ Δ, Α Ρ, and Ε Α Η designate the Literary Societies, etc., etc. GD indicates Granddaughters of St. Mary's.

The names of nonresident students are indicated by asterisks (*) prefixed.

Students whose names are marked with a dagger were in attendance only a part of the session.

The St. Mary's Girls of 1914-'15

College and Upper Preparatory Departments

This is intended to be a student directory, giving the full name, correct address for correspondence, and student activities of each girl. Apology is offered for any errors.

After each name is given the academic classification, indicated in the College by the Class Numeral. Prep. indicates a member of the Preparatory Department; Bus., a member of the Business Department; Mus., Music Department, etc.

The figure which follows the class indication gives the number of years the student has been at St. Mary's.

The line or lines below the name and address are meant to give a summary of the membership in student organizations and the student offices held during the year. For the most part only the first name is used in designating the organization. Thus, Sigma and Mu denote the Athletic Clubs, Dramatic means Dramatic Club, Altar means Altar Guild, St. Margaret's means St. Margaret's Chapter, Σ A, A P, and E A II designate the Literary Societies, etc., etc. GD indicates Granddaughters of St. Mary's.

The names of nonresident students are indicated by asterisks (*) prefixed.

Students whose names are marked with a dagger were in attendance only a part of the session.

The St. Mary's Girls of 1915-'16

College and Upper Preparatory Departments

This is intended to be a student directory, giving the full name, correct address for correspondence, and student activities of each girl. Apology is offered for any errors.

After each name is given the academic classification, indicated in the College by the Class Numeral. Prep. indicates a member of the Preparatory Department; Bus., a member of the Business Department; Mus., Music Department, etc.

The figure which follows the class indication gives the number of years the student has been at St. Mary's.

The line or lines below the name and address are meant to give a summary of the membership in student organizations and the student offices held during the year. For the most part only the first name is used in designating the organization. Thus, Sigma and Mu denote the Athletic Clubs, Dramatic means Dramatic Club, St. Margaret's means St. Margaret's Chapter, $\Sigma \Delta$, A P, and E A II designate the Literary Societies, etc., etc. GD indicates Granddaughters of St. Mary's.

The names of nonresident students are indicated by asterisks (*) prefixed.

Students whose names are marked with a dagger were in attendance only a part of the session.

The St. Mary's Girls of 1916-'17

College and Upper Preparatory Departments

This is intended to be a student directory, giving the full name, correct address for correspondence, and student activities of each girl. Apology is offered for any errors.

After each name is given the academic classification, indicated in the College by the Class Numeral. Prep. indicates a member of the Preparatory Department; Bus., a member of the Business Department; Mus., Music Department, etc.

The figure which follows the class indication gives the number of years the student has been at St. Mary's.

The line or lines below the name and address are meant to give a summary of the membership in student organizations and the student offices held during the year. For the most part only the first name is used in designating the organization. Thus, Sigma and Mu denote the Athletic Clubs, Σ A, A P, and E A II designate the Literary Societies, etc., etc. GD indicates Granddaughters of St. Mary's.

The names of nonresident students are indicated by asterisks (*) prefixed.

Students whose names are marked with a dagger (†) were in attendance only a part of the session.

Alma Mater

(Tune: "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms")

St. Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar, out of sight of thy grove,
But the thought of St. Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved St. Mary's! how great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom, and love.

H. E. H., 1905.

Alma Mater

(Tune: "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms")

St. Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar, out of sight of thy grove,
But the thought of St. Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved St. Mary's! how great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom, and love.

H. E. H., 1905.

Help Things Along

(Tune: "Wait for the Wagon")

(As sung at the "School Party")

Your country calls, St. Mary's girls;
The call is clear and strong.
You love your country surely:
Then help things along.

Work to the limit,
Save to the limit,
Give to the limit,
And help things along.

The need of food is urgent,
And waste is wholly wrong.
You love your country surely:
Then help things along.

Plant in the garden,
Hoe in the garden,
Can from the garden,
And help things along.

The country needs your money,
But it pays you right along.
You love your country surely:
Then help things along.

Buy up the Thrift Stamps,
Pile up the Thrift Stamps,
Convert the Thrift Stamps,
And help things along.

The Red Cross calls for service;
You, all of you, belong.
You love your country surely:
Then help things along.

Knit in the Work Room,
Sew for the Work Room,
Roll in the Work Room,
And help things along.

Your country calls, St. Mary's girls;
The call is, oh! so strong.
Do you love your country really?
Then help things along.

Work till it hurts you,
Save till it hurts you,
Give till it hurts you,
And help things along.

The St. Mary's Girls of 1917-18

Prep. Song, 1918

(Tune: Coming Back from Bangor)

(As sung at the "School Party")

We are little Preplets,
A-sitting over here;
Our hearts are full of sadness
Because Commencement's near.
Swift the days are passing,
The minutes swiftly fly;
Soon we will be saying:
"St. Mary's, dear, good-bye."

We're glad we're through with lessons,
We're glad we're going home,
But somehow we are sorry
To see Commencement come.
We hate to leave St. Mary's,
Friend hates to part with friend,
The longest days are precious,
But all good things must end.

Goodbye, little Chapel;
Farewell, dear old Grove;
Goodbye, stately oak trees,
And all the things we love.
Goodbye, dear St. Mary's!
We'll hold your mem'ry dear.
Farewell, but here's hoping
We'll all be back next year.

K. WADDELL.

Alma Mater

(Tune: "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms")

St. Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree,
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar, out of sight of thy grove,
But the thought of St. Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved St. Mary's! how great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through the fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom, and love.

H. E. H., 1905.

The "Flu Song"

Here you see before you
A maiden young and fair,
Always bright and cheery,
And quite without a care.
She looks very healthy—
You wouldn't have believed
That anything was wrong with her,
But don't you be deceived.
For soon a little germlet
Espied this pretty maid,
And very well-meant overtures
To win her he essayed;
Gave her quite a graveyard cough,
And a headache, too,
A back ache, front ache, side ache—
In short, gave her the Flu!

The worst is always over,
Or else it's yet to be,
But being convalescent
Is awful, you'll agree.
They dress you up in woolens,
And cotton stockings, too,
And feed you naught but tonic—
Don't ever get the Flu!

They stuck a big thermometer
'Twixt pearly teeth and lip,
And when they took it out they said
"She has got the grippe!"
They fed her upon capsules
Every hour or two—
Take warning! that's what happens
To anyone with Flu.
They telegraphed for nurses,
They sent for Dr. Knox,
And clapped her into quarantine
As if she had smallpox.
Hot-water bags at head and feet,
And Vicks on throat and chest—
That sickly, suffering maiden thinks
That Flu is just a pest.

(As written by Mary Yellott and sung by the Seniors, in their commemoration of the "Flu," at the Hallowe'en Celebration)

“Sweet William”

(Tune: “When First I Met Sweet Peggy”)

When first I saw sweet William
'Twas when I left the train.
In one of his hands he took my bag,
In 'tother he whirled his cane.
He asked me for a quarter,
And kindly took my check;
I was so thankful to him that
I 'most fell on his neck.
But there were most a dozen more,
And checks and bags were there galore—
So he looked once at me,
Then turned him to flee,
Leaving me, for the once, the floor.

When next I saw sweet William
'Twas in the History room;
He wore stuck in his buttonhole
A red rose full in bloom.
The very first thing he asked me
I really didn't know;
But he said “That's right,” and then he talked
On the theme an hour or so—
With a pause every now and then,
And then he starts off again.
When his “What” oft is heard
We just fill in the word—
Oh, sweet William's the sweetest of men!

(As sung by Ellen Lay and Elizabeth Waddell at the “School Party”)

THE STUDENT BLUE BOOK

OF

ST. MARY'S

1919-20

Alma Mater

(Tune: "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms")

St. Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree,
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar, out of sight of thy grove,
But the thoughts of St. Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved St. Mary's! how great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through the fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom, and love.

H. E. H., 1905.

Song of Welcome

(Tune: "Washington and Lee Swing")

A welcome to our schoolmates one and all,
We're glad to see you here, both great and small;
You Juniors, soon to fill our places here,
We welcome you with love that's deep and most sincere;
You learned Soph'mores, full of fun and glee,
Our Sister Class, we welcome joyfully;
You jolly Freshmen and you Preplets too, welcome you,
One and all!

'Tis not our wish to make you sad tonight,
So let your hearts be gay and faces bright;
We ask this favor of you; don't refuse,
And for tonight let's banish all our cares and blues.
Now we have sung our song; we hope that you
Will not forget us in a year or two;
So Juniors, Soph'mores, Freshmen, Preplets all, great and small,
We welcome you!

(As written by Mary T. Yellott and sung by the Seniors at the "School Party")

The Junior Song

(Tune: "Three Blind Mice")

Tuneless Six!

Tuneless Six!

We can't sing!

We can't sing!

We'd like to add a word or two,
To say we're happy to be with you,
But this is the best that we can do—

Tuneless Six!

What's the use?

What's the use?

We can't sing!

We can't sing!

But we will strive to do our best
And sing our tuneless song with zest;
Here's to the Seniors and all the rest—

Tuneless Six!

(As written by Katherine Waddell and sung by the six Juniors at the "School Party")

“The Latest Fashion”

In comes Mary with a new dress on, a new dress on, a new dress on,
It's the very first time that its ever been worn,
And her nose is in the air!

It's fluffy and it's duffy and it's just been bought, it's just been bought, it's just been bought,
But alack and alas, its sleeves are short—
Oh, Mary, have a care!

Out goes Mary with her new dress on, her new dress on, her new dress on,
Her spirits have fallen and her smile is gone—
Pride has led her wrong!

In comes Mary with an old dress on, old dress on, old dress on,
It's rumpled and it's dumbled and the collar's torn—
What matter? its sleeves are long!

(As written by Katherine Waddell and sung by Anne Kirtland at the “School Party”)

"Perfect Posture"

(Tune: "A British Tar" from "Pinafore")

A St. Mary's Girl should have perfect pose,
She never should neglect
Her classes in the Gym, but should enter with a vim,
And learn to stand erect.
Whether she's in class with a book in hand
Or at Brantley's she incurs
Grave displeasure if she's seen from perpendicular to lean—
Perfect posture must be hers!

CHORUS:

She should stand erect, yes, without a doubt,
Her heels should meet and her toes turn out;
Her chin should be in and her chest protrude,
And this should be her customary attitude!

To St. Mary's Girls round shoulders are a crime
That should never be permitted;
French heels? Miss Bierce can't bear 'em, so her pupils never wear 'em,
But with Gym shoes they are fitted.
Indian clubs they wield with an enviable skill,
With dumb bells wildly gesture;
If after class they're wrecked, what less could you expect
To pay for perfect posture?—CHORUS.

(As sung by Estelle Avent at the "Junior-Senior Banquet" and repeated at the "School Party")

Hail, St. Mary's

In a grove of stately oak trees,
Where the sunlight lies,
Stands St. Mary's true and noble,
'Neath the southern skies.

Far and wide, oh sound her praises,
Chorus full and free,
Hail, St. Mary's, Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee!

Well we love the little chapel,
Ever hold it dear;
Hear the echoes of the music,
Rising soft and clear.
Far and wide, etc.

There the ivy and the roses
Climb the old stone wall,
There the sweet, enticing bird-notes
Sound their magic call.
Far and wide, etc.

And the bonds of friendship strengthen
As her beauties charm,
We draw close to Alma Mater,
Trust her guiding arm.
Far and wide, etc.

Alma Mater

(Tune: "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms")

St. Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree,
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar, out of sight of thy grove,
But the thoughts of St. Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved St. Mary's! How great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through the fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom, and love.

H. E. H., 1905.

The St. Mary's Girls of 1920-21

This is intended to be a student directory, giving the full name and correct address for correspondence of each girl. Apology is offered for any error.

After each name is given the academic classification, in the "college" indicated by the Class Numeral. "Prep." indicates a member of the Preparatory Department, "Bus." a member of the Business Department, etc.

The figure which follows the class indication gives the number of years the student has been at St. Mary's.

The names of the non-resident students are indicated by asterisks (*); those prefixed with a dagger (†) were in attendance only a part of the session.

Sophomore Song

(Tune "Turkey in the Straw")

Oh, the Sophomore Class is a grand old class,
 Look at our record from first to last,
 On it you will not find a blot,
 We are always "Johnny on the spot."

We are a fine class, we are the best,
 In all our dealings we lead the rest,
 Oh my, oh my, oh my soul,
 The Sophs are known from pole to pole!

(As written by Dorothy Baum and Elizabeth Tucker for the School Party)

Sweet William

(Mary T. Yellott, 1920)

When first I saw Sweet William
'Twas when I left the train,
In one of his hands he took my bag,
In t'other he twirled his cane.
He asked me for a quarter
And kindly took my check;
I was so thankful to him
That I 'most fell on his neck!
But there were most a dozen more,
And checks and bags there galore,
So he looked once at me,
Then he turned him to flee,
Leaving me, for the once, the floor.

When next I saw Sweet William
'Twas in the History room.
He wore stuck in his button-hole
A red rose, full in bloom.
The very first thing he asked me
I really did not know,
But he said, "That's right!" and then he talked
On the theme an hour or so!
With a pause every now and then,
And then he starts off again.
When his "What?" oft is heard
We just fill in the word—
Oh, Sweet William's the sweetest of men!

(As sung by Katherine Waddell and Frances Venable at the 1921 School Party)

The Prep Song

Tune, "Bangor"

We are little Preplets,
A sitting over here,
Our hearts are filled with gladness
Because Commencements near
Swift the days are passing,
The minutes swiftly fly;
Soon we will be saying
St. Mary's, dear, good-bye.
We're glad we're through with lessons,
We're glad we're going home,
But somehow we are sorry
To see Commencement come.
We hate to leave St. Mary's,
Friend hates to part with friend,
The longest days are precious,
But all good times must end.
Good-bye little chapel,
Farewell dear old grove, -
Good-bye stately oak trees
And all the things we love.
Good-bye dear St. Mary's,
We'll hold your memory dear,
Farewell, but here's hoping
We'll all be back next year!

(As sung by the "Preps" at the Tenth School Party, May 7, 1921)

Alma Mater

(Tune: "Believe Me if All Those Endearing Young Charms")

Saint Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree,
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar out of sight of thy grove,
But the thoughts of Saint Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved Saint Mary's! How great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through the fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom, and love.

H. E. H., 1905.

The Junior Song

1

(Tune: "Three Blind Mice")

Junior Class,
Junior Class;
We can't sing,
We can't sing;
But we've come to say hello to you,
And ask you just how do you do.
Oh, we're so very glad to see you,
Says the Junior Class.

2

We're so sad,
We're so sad,
Because we've got
To say goodbye;
But if the partings did not begin,
How could we ever meet again?
And that's the reason that we can grin,
Says the Junior Class.

(As sung by the Juniors at the 1922 School Party)

Toasts

Never worried, tired or blue
How we wish we were all like you!
Here's to you, Miss Morgan!

He hitched their wagon to a star,
He made the Seniors what they are.
Mr. Stone!

A wonderful character,
To everyone a friend.
She's the best Senior President
That's ever been.
Here's to you, Mary Louise!

She's a marvel, full of pep,
Take it from us she's got a wonderful rep—
Miss Sutton!

I know a little secret,
But I'm going to tell you who;
She makes all the parties,
There's nothing she can't do.
That's Mrs. Marriott!

Alma Mater

(Tune: "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms")

Saint Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar out of sight of thy grove,
But the thoughts of Saint Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved Saint Mary's! How great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through the fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom, and love.

The Class Poem of 1922-1923

Old, old oak trees tall and stately,
Buildings worn by many years,
Stained glass windows catching sunlight
And the cross which upwards rears,
Cause our throats with love to tighten,
Love so close akin to tears.

We have played, have run and frolicked
In the halls and through the grove,
We have studied, worked and struggled
Graduation the goal above;
St. Mary's girls for friends we've chosen,
Loved all that St. Mary's girls love.

Happy days have been our portion,
Days made up of work and play;
All have taught us true devotion
For the school, which does repay
In a far, far greater measure,
All our work from day to day.

Alma Mater

(Tune: Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms")

Saint Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar out of sight of thy grove,
But the thoughts of Saint Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved Saint Mary's! How great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through the fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom and love.

Senior Class Poem, 1924

There's a place for us in the Chapel grey,
Where the tall white candles flame,
There we have felt the presence of God
And breathed with love His name
We have a place in the long Wide Hall,
Where the old clock ticks away
The hours that hold our youthful tears
And the hours that are bright and gay.

There's a place for us in every nook,
'Neath every tree in the grove,
Each stone to us is a memory star
Of friendship dear—and love,
The All of you—Oh home of love
Has held us through the days,
And in our hearts there's a place for you
Alma Mater and friend—always!

Alma Mater

(Tune: "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms")

Saint Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar out of sight of thy grove,
But the thoughts of Saint Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved Saint Mary's! How great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through the fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom and love.

Work of the League

The Church School Service League has this year contributed about two hundred dollars to civic and foreign work outside of its regular pledges.

Through the pledges, amounting to one hundred and twenty dollars yearly, we have been able to help through scholarships in China and also give something yearly towards the education of an Indian boy from Alaska.

Fruit was sent to the Old Ladies' Home of Raleigh, Christmas stockings given for St. Savior's Mission and a Community Christmas tree, while the Lenten offering of one hundred and forty dollars was divided between Miss McKenzie's work in Liberia and Miss Smith's work in Alaska as both of these workers are St. Mary's girls.

Hail, Saint Mary's

Adapted from Margaret Mason Young, 1899

In a grove of stately oak trees,
Where the sunlight lies,
Stands Saint Mary's true and noble
'Neath the Southern skies.

Far and wide, oh sound her praises,
Chorus full and fee,
Hail, St. Mary's, Alma Mater,
Hail all hail to thee!

Well we love the little chapel
Ever hold it dear;
Hear the echoes of the music,
Rising soft and clear.

Far and wide, etc.

There the ivy and the roses
Climb the old stone wall,
There the sweet, enticing bird notes
Sound there magic call.

Far and wide, etc.

Epilogue: Senior Poem

'Tis done. The curtain falls upon our play,
New players come to thrall you in their sway,
While we, forgot, forgetting on the road
Will take out singing down some other way.

But where we go shall go St. Mary's praise,
For she has lit the labyrinthine maze
Of our stage sets with bright encouragement
And listened, sympathetic, to our lays.

And where we go shall go her songs, unasked.
For she has understood when we were tasked
To learn our lines; and she has clear, true eyes
That saw the best in us when it was masked.

The players have learned many things from you
As you sit, thoughtful, watching in review
This play of our brief months. They try to play
Be your ideal—be simple, kindly, true.

Our play is done—and finished once for all,
There is no time to take a curtain call,
Read over some lost line, or stage new scenes,
The players knew their cues. Time cannot stall.

Forgive the faults that proved themselves amiss.
Forget the ordeal scenes, hard laugh and hiss.
Remember joy that came from this short play—
The company's disbanded after this.

Alma Mater

(Tune: "Believe Me If All Those Endearing Young Charms")

Saint Mary's! wherever thy daughters may be
They love thy high praises to sing,
And tell of thy beauties of campus and tree
Around which sweet memories cling;
They may wander afar, out of reach of thy name,
Afar out of sight of thy grove,
But the thoughts of Saint Mary's aye kindles a flame
Of sweet recollections and love.

Beloved Saint Mary's! How great is our debt!
Thou hast cared for thy daughters full well;
They can never thy happy instructions forget,
Nor fail of thy virtues to tell.
The love that they feel is a heritage pure;
An experience wholesome and sweet.
Through the fast rolling years it will grow and endure;
Be a lamp and a guide to our feet.

May the future unite all the good of thy past
With the best that new knowledge can bring.
Ever onward and upward thy course! To the last
Be thou steadfast in every good thing.
Generations to come may thy fair daughters still
Fondly think on thy halls and thy grove
And carry thy teachings—o'er woodland and hill—
Of earnestness, wisdom and love.

Hail, Saint Mary's

Adapted from Margaret Mason Young, 1899

In a grove of stately oak trees,
Where the sunlight lies,
Stands Saint Mary's true and noble
'Neath the Southern skies.

Far and wide, oh sound her praises,
Chorus full and free,
Hail, Saint Mary's, Alma Mater,
Hail all hail to thee!

Well we love the little chapel
Ever hold it dear;
Hear the echoes of the music,
Rising soft and clear.

Far and wide, etc.

There the ivy and the roses
Climb the old stone wall,
There the sweet, enticing bird notes
Sound there magic call.

Far and wide, etc.

Our Song to You: Senior Poem

Our year with you has been a song,
A song of many parts.
Its laughing treble strains are gay
And ripple on from day to day;
The sadder tones that fill our hearts
Are lit with memories, smiles and tears
The melodies of other years,
The harmonies of song.

Throughout our song there is a theme
That binds the parts in one,
Saint Mary's columns white and strong,
And Friendship's beauteous, glorious song,
The oak trees gleaming in the sun,
The Chapel gray, the cross on high,
Echoing footsteps, whispered sigh
Are woven through our theme.

The melodies of friendship sing
And pulsate in our song,
For rising breezes in their flight
Around the fluted columns white
Its sweetness will prolong.
The hours of labor and of fun
The struggles, and the victories won
The dearest memories bring.

The lingering strains now fade away
And now our song must end.
The echoes vibrate on the breeze
And tremble through the tall oak trees
And sing to every friend—
“Forget the discords of our song,
Remember friendships true and strong,
For we must go away.”

—A. Platt.
